From Saturday Auguſt 21. to Tuesday Auguſt 24. 1714.

Weſtminſter, Auguſt 21.

THIS Day the Lords Juſtices, appointed to Adminiſter the Government till the arrival of His Majeſty, came to the Houſe of Peers, and ſent a Meſſage to the Commons by Sir William Oldes, Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, requiring their Attendance. The Commons went up accordingly, and the Lords Juſtices gave the Royal Aſſent to Three Publick Bills, viz.

An Act for the better Support of His Majeſty's Houſhold, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown of Great Britain.

An Act for rectifying Miſtakes in the Names of the Commiſſioners for the Land-Tax for the Year One thouſand ſeven hundred and fourteen; And for raiſing ſo much as is wanting to make up the Sum of Fourteen hundred thouſand Pounds, intended to be raiſed by a Lottery for the Publick Service in the ſaid Year.

An Act to enable Perſons now reſiding in Great Britain, to take the Oaths, and do all other Acts in Great Britain, requiſite to qualifie themſelves to continue their reſpective Places, Offices and Employments, in Ireland.

After which the Lord Chancellor, being One of the Lords Juſtices, in their Name made the following Speech to both Houſes of Parliament.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

WE cannot but expreſs our greateſt Satisfaction, and, in His Majeſty's Name, return you Thanks, for the convincing Proofs which you have given, in this Seſſion, of your Duty and Affection to His Majeſty, and of your Zeal for his Government.

We muſt particularly thank you, Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons, for the Aids which you have granted to His Majeſty for the better Support of the Honour of the Crown, and for preventing any Diſappointment in the Supplies given in the laſt Seſſion for the Service of this Year. You may be aſſured, that the Unanimity, the Chearfulneſs, and the Diſpatch with which you have proceeded in Granting theſe Aids, will render them yet more acceptable to His Majeſty. And you may depend upon our making a faithful Repreſentation thereof to Him.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

All neceſſary Buſineſs being now happily concluded, it will be proper for us to put a ſpeedy End to this Seſſion. We think fit, at preſent, in His Majeſty's Name, to deſire you forthwith reſpectively to Adjourn your ſelves until Wedneſday next.

St. James's, Auguſt 21. The following Addreſs was delivered to the Lord's Juſtices by the Right Hon. the Earl of Carliſle, in order to be laid before His Majeſty.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Gentlemen of the Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, with ſeveral of the Clergy, and other Gentlemen of the County of Cumberland, at the Aſſizes held at the City of Carliſle, Aug. 10. 1714.

WE Your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly crave Leave to repreſent to Your Sacred Majeſty, the ſenſible Relief we find under the great Loſs of our late Excellent Queen, by the happy and peaceful Acceſſion of Your Majeſty to Your Throne of Great Britain; which gives us the unſpeakable Comfort and Aſſurance of having our Religion, Laws and Liberties, as now Eſtabliſh'd, ſecur'd to us and our Poſterity.

We thankfully adore the Divine Goodneſs, for this Seaſonable Mercy; beſeeching him, by whom Kings Reign, to multiply his Bleſſings, by a long Continuance of Your Majeſty's Life and Reign, and an Uninterrupted Succeſſion of Your Royal Heirs to the Imperial Crown of this Kingdom, ſo long as Time ſhall laſt.

Vienna, Auguſt 11. N. S. On the 7th Inſtant their Imperial Majeſties, accompanied by ſeveral of the Miniſters, went from hence to Newſtad, where it is ſaid they will continue till near the time of their departure to Presbourg. Some Days ago Count Miral, Colonel of the Regiment of Falkenſtein, died here in the 53d Year of his Age. Prince Eugene is preparing to ſet out very ſoon for Baden, where Mareſchal Villars is likewiſe expected in a ſhort time, and it is thought the Treaty of Peace between the Empire and France, will be Sign'd immediately after their arrival at the Congreſs. The Imperial Troops in Bavaria are ordered to be in a readineſs to leave that Country within a Month. Count Reventlau is arrived here with the Character of Envoy Extraordinary of the Duke of Holſtein Gottorp. Baron Spar, who came lately from Berlin, is gone to Baden, in order to recommend the Intereſts of the King of Sweden, his Maſter, to the Miniſters at that Place. His Imperial Majeſty hath held ſeveral Councils upon the Affairs of the North, but as yet there is very little appearance of putting an End to the War there, unleſs the Swediſh Miniſters will recede from ſome Demands they have hitherto made. Letters from Conſtantinople bring an account, that the Grand Signior had at laſt ſent the King of Sweden the Paſſports he deſired, and that his Majeſty was preparing to ſet out from Demotica, in order to return through the Emperor's Hereditary Countries into his own Dominions. The Turks continued to expreſs great Uneaſineſs at the Imperial Troops incamping in Hungary, and they were reſolv'd to ſend an Ambaſſador to this Place, in order to be better informed of the Deſigns of our Court.

Madrid, Auguſt 13. N. S. A Treaty of Marriage is concluded between his Catholick Majeſty and the Princeſs of Parma, and it is ſaid the Marquis del Balbaces, who is now at Genoa, will be appointed to Conduct the new Queen into this Kingdom. The Governor of Cadiz, by the King's Order, having demanded a Donative of all Merchants who have Houſes and Families in that City, Sir Martin Weſtcombe, his Britanick Majeſty's Conſul there, hath preſented a Memorial, deſiring a Revocation of thoſe Orders, as far as they relate to the Subjects
